To apply for an academic scholarship, please answer the following questions on your own paper. Please type your answers and put your name on each page. Your application will be reproduced so please do not staple pages together.

1. List briefly your primary church, community and/or undergraduate extracurricular activities. Note your leadership responsibilities as appropriate. Please list these activities in descending order of importance to you.
2. List any major academic honors, fellowships, scholarships, or community awards you have received. Again, list these honors in descending order of importance to you.
3. Please type a statement of not more than three double-spaced pages answering the following questions:

What are your convictions about one significant issue facing the church and/or society?

How might the church make a faithful response to that issue?

Deadline: March 15
Application should be mailed to
