7. GEOGRAPHICAL LIMITATIONS:

My husband Tim and I are willing to go where God leads us. Though I have lived the majority of my life in the southeast, I have also lived abroad and I am open to living in another part of the United States. Tim has lived all over the United States, including Ohio, California, Texas, Iowa, Illinois, North Carolina, and now Georgia. We have made a "U" in the United States marking that we would prefer living along the west coast, in the southern states bordering Mexico, or along the east coast. After living in Atlanta for three years, we are not sure we could "weather" the cold in Nebraska, Iowa, Alaska, Michigan, North Dakota, Minnesota, South Dakota, Wyoming, or Wisconsin.

8. BRIEF INTRODUCTION OF MYSELF

My name is Dawn Martin Hyde. My call to ministry has come through my baptism and walk of faith. God claimed me in the waters of baptism and called me to follow Jesus Christ. I seek to serve Christ through the community of the church, not motivated by my own ambitions, but by my acknowledgement that the Holy Spirit is revealing this call. The gifts and passions I bring to the church include my devotion to and love of Scripture, my experience of pastoral care, the joy I find in preaching and teaching, my energy and imagination for cross cultural ministry, and my organizational and fundraising skills.

I am from North Carolina and have lived and studied abroad in Ecuador, Peru, and Guatemala. I am fluent in Spanish and enjoy doing bilingual/bicultural ministry. My church community raised me and I follow a long line of Presbyterian ministers including my mother and grandfather. My father is a professor of sustainable energy at Appalachian State University and has instilled a love of learning in me. My husband Tim is also a cradle Presbyterian and currently works as a mechanical engineer for Newel Rubbermaid. Together, we are seeking where God is calling us to be next!

I am currently completing my first unit of Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) at Grady Memorial Hospital. This experience is refining my gift for pastoral care and is clarifying my desire to serve in a church where the relationships I form will last longer than a few days or weeks. In addition to serving God through the church, I enjoy running, traveling, cooking, being outdoors, and spending quality time with family and friends. I am quite a "people person" and look forward to getting to know you and your church home!
