Presbyterian College Chaplaincy Internship

The compelling purpose of Presbyterian College is to “to develop within the framework of Christian faith the mental, physical, moral, and spiritual capacities of each student in preparation for a lifetime of personal and vocational fulfillment and responsible contribution to our democratic society and the world community.” This position will support the mission of the college by promoting the spiritual and moral development of Presbyterian College students.

Under the supervision of the Director of Religious Life & Service, the intern will engage in activities and assignments that support ministry in a liberal arts college. This is an opportunity for a current seminary student or recent seminary graduate to gain experience in College Chaplaincy, a unique blend of advising, empowering, directing and equipping students for meaningful learning experiences. Presbyterian College has a history of putting its faith into action through service in the world. This is an exciting opportunity to explore chaplaincy work in higher education as a call and expose new pastors to ways that faith communities can be places that make a difference in the world.
