

“I feel called to youth ministry – called to create a space where youth can experience the grace of Christ right where they are.”

Each student at Columbia Seminary has their own unique story of what led them here.

Second-year student Erin Rugh is no exception. “I wouldn’t be able to follow my call to ministry without the support of donors like you. Thank you!”

Ninety percent of our students receive tuition assistance. Help us make the call to ministry possible for the next generation of leaders in Christ’s Church.

Text “GIVE” to
(470) 264-3618

Or give online:
www.ctsnet.edu/give

Support a call to ministry!

Or go to www.presbyterianfoundation.org/tef/ to give to the Theological Education Fund of the PC(USA).

“I feel called to youth ministry – called to create a space where youth can experience the grace of Christ right where they are.”

Each student at Columbia Seminary has their own unique story of what led them here.

Second-year student Erin Rugh is no exception. “I wouldn’t be able to follow my call to ministry without the support of donors like you. Thank you!”

Ninety percent of our students receive tuition assistance. Help us make the call to ministry possible for the next generation of leaders in Christ’s Church.

Text “GIVE” to
(470) 264-3618

Or give online:
www.ctsnet.edu/give

Support a call to ministry!

Or go to www.presbyterianfoundation.org/tef/ to give to the Theological Education Fund of the PC(USA).