

Call to Justice:

Advocating for Affordable Housing and our Unhoused Neighbors

Columbia Theological Seminary
March 7, 2025

Agenda

- Who are Presbyterians for a Better GA?
- How we do advocacy
- The importance of housing affordability
- Success stories
- Lessons learned
- Next Up – Join Us!

Presbyterians for a Better Georgia

- Purpose of Presbyterians for a Better Georgia
- Origin of Presbyterians for a Better GA

Presbyterians for a Better Georgia

- How we do advocacy

Video

Insert link here:

Facts about increasing costs of housing

The importance of Housing Affordability

Facts about increasing homelessness

Homelessness is a housing problem

The importance of Housing Affordability

Interventions

The importance of Housing Affordability

Success Story #1

Opposing criminalization of Homelessness- SB659

Success Story #2

Advocating for HB404 – The Safe at Home Act

Success Story #3

Building Affordable Housing with Partners

-
1. The lack of affordable housing is a national issue that affects the most vulnerable people in our community.
 2. Homelessness and lack of affordable housing are integrally linked.
 3. This is a never-ending problem
 4. Partnership is essential
 5. Personal relationships are vital
 6. Presbyterians are part of a connected church

Lessons Learned

Thank you

Presbyterians for a Better Georgia - <https://www.p4bg.org/>

Al Stacer, President

David Lewicki, Board of Directors

Gary Cornell, Volunteer

Questions?
